Let your people shout loud and proud about their coworkers with Hive Fives—included in your Hive subscription.

Our peer-to-peer recognition tool, Hive Fives, is one of the easiest ways to boost employee engagement. It gives your people the ability to recognise their coworkers for a job well done, at any time, for any reason!

Empower productivity by boosting team confidence, enthusiasm, and wellbeing.

A virtual pat on the back—aka a Hive Five—that highlights the everyday wins and efforts of your people will make them feel more valued. Meaningful and consistent recognition is vital to inspiring great performance at work.

Values-driving recognition for everyone to see.

Hive Fives is the only feature of our platform that isn't confidential. Making names visible means every achievement can be recognised and celebrated across your wider organisation—with customisable categories that mean all kudos can be aligned to your organisational values.

Organisations with highly effective recognition strategies have a 31% lower voluntary turnover than those without.
